

THE CLIMAX.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 17, 1887.

The gas well is now down two hundred feet.

Save money by reading advertisement "Last Call" elsewhere in this paper.

So far, Mr. H. B. Todd has learned nothing relative to the burning of his two barns.

There is now on deposit in the four banks of Richmond, to the credit of individuals, $482,706.

Miss Alice and Lena Denson gave a croquet party at their delightful country home Saturday afternoon.

The finest grapes the CLIMAX has seen this season were left at this office yesterday by Miss Maggie May Mitchell.

Dr. Dillard Price, well-known in the Northern part of this county, has removed to Winchester.

E. T. Burnett, U. S. Special Commissioner, is sending numerous violators of the law to Louisville.

More than three hundred passengers bought tickets at the R. C. depot in Richmond, on last Saturday.

Richard, six-year-old son of Mr. R. L. Gentry, fell from the second story window of Sexton's grocery on Monday, but was not seriously hurt.

Maj. B. G. Thomas, the well-known horse dealer, of Lexington, and brother of the late Judge C. B. Thomas of the circuit court, is dangerously sick with Bright's disease.

Frank Maier the journeyman tailor who attempted to kill his wife was fined $10 and costs, and exceedingly light punishment considering the quality of the crime.

Col. T. S. Moberly leaves this week with his herd of Shortbush for Ohio. He will exhibit at a number of stock fairs in Ohio, Illinois and Indiana before he returns. At these places he meets in competition all the best herds of the country but he always being a home-bred liberal share of the honors to say nothing about the blue ribbons and the "hard cash."

Mr. J. S. Branton says he has determined to go West and cannot afford to leave without selling his residence. To the mind of the writer this is one of the most desirable places in our city. It is indeed, at small outlay of money, a country home, and yet within a few minutes walk of any part of our town. You can't appreciate it until you see it. Don't let the opportunity pass and then wish you had bought it. Somebody is going to get a bargain.

Mr. B. Forest Riddell, of Evansville, Ind., formerly of this place, is in town this week. He is in the Livery business and left home in pursuit of a horse thief. A man lured a horse and failing to return it, Mr. Riddell followed him, found the man in Garrard county and received pay for his horse. He came on to Richmond to see his friends here. He is married, is looking happy and is doing a prosperous business.

Two lops. The young men gave two elegant lops at the New Opera House last week—Wednesday night and Friday night. They were well attended, and the spectators were numerous. The costumes were elegant, and the music furnished by Trist & Saxton's orchestra. There was present an unusually large number of visitors. The young men in and about Richmond don't do things in any half-way manner.

Elegant Party. On Tuesday night of last week, the Misses Branton gave an elaborate party in honor of Miss Lester, of Washington City, their cousin. The residence and grounds were beautifully illuminated, and the parlor, halls, drawing room and dining-room tastefully decorated with vines and flowers. The supper was an exquisite one, prepared by Dinelli, and the delightful music furnished by Trist & Saxton. To employ the words of a visitor, it was "a love of a party to pretty for description." Among those present were Miss Lester, Washington; Miss Holt, Frankfurt; Miss Chennault, Mt. Sterling; Miss Turner, Missouri; Miss Williams, Cincinnati; Miss Fox and Miss Lusk, Mt. Sterling; Miss Atkinson, Missouri; Miss Tucker, Winchester; Misses Caille Chennault, Florence Barlow, Nettie Stockton, Mary B. Harris, Mattie Chennault, Minnie Letcher, Blanche Hart, Bessie Barlow, Belle Harber, Mary Burman, Bessie Miller, Ollie Gregory, Harrie Miller, Marie Baldwin, Anna Frazee, Minnie Smith, Lizzie Bennett, Kate Phelps, Zenaida Kueby, Mary McCord, Della Ramsey, Mrs. M. M. Branton, Mrs. S. S. Branton. A number of gentlemen from other counties were present, and a full quota from Richmond and vicinity.

Pleasant Party. A four mile ride Monday evening with a pretty girl, who shall here be nameless, brought the writer to the country residence of Mr. George Deatherage. We have a few points for THE CLIMAX. First we note the beautifully decorated lawn leading to the house with its many Chinese lanterns giving to each and every corner a renewal of cordial welcome that had gone out with the previous invitations of Messrs. Sen B. and Will T. Deatherage. The party was one of the largest we have ever seen, fully 150 persons being present, and was given in honor of their guests, Misses Spears, Welch, and Duncan. It was, as some would term it, an old fashioned party—old fashioned at least so far as open handed hospitality and beautiful tables are concerned, glowing under the weight of that which refreshes the inner man (and the girl too but we dare not say that out loud for girls at parties never eat any thing.)

The Messrs. Deatherage were assisted by Miss Emma DeJarnett, in doing the honors of the occasion, and so watchfully did they ensure that for prolonged chat or for love making the boys had no other alternative than to steal a girl out of sight and seek a walk or a seat under the mellow light of a Chinese lantern in the lawn. Music lent its charms to the occasion, and the easy view of dancing was indulged in by the young, while the older ones willingly practiced the laborious virtue of peeping in at the window. Below we give a full list of the ladies present and dress of each.

The CLIMAX lays parol on its readers for omitting the list. We cannot do the truth. We are out of Mr. G's have borrowed all that our friend, the Register, has and still haven't enough. There are so many Misses, Mrs. Maries, Messrs, Minnies, Marys, Marias, Madisons in print this week that we are short of Mr. G's. We select a few only from the list above referred to:

Miss Duncan, Garrard, albatross, lace and satin, natural flowers.

Miss Spears, Jessamine, black lace, pink sash, diamonds, natural flowers.

Miss Welch, Jessamine, cream albatross, electric green plush, natural flowers.

Miss Bright, Danville, blue mull, black velvet trimmings.

Miss Patterson, Cynthia, cream albatross, black moire sash.

Miss Ethel Heacock, Lexington, cream albatross, lace overdress.

Miss Lillard, Lawrenceburg, embroidered mull, natural flowers.

Miss Brock, Lexington, silk green satin with over-dress.

Miss Patton, Nicholasville, heliotrope albatross with lace.

Miss Muir, Fayette county, cream silk, diamonds.

Miss Eva Heacock, Lexington, cream albatross with lace over-dress.

Miss Rogers, Georgia, pink silk and lace.

Club Party. Richmond has never had an entertainment superior to that given at Madison Club on Thursday night of last week. The great double parlors, the spacious hall-room, the ample dining-room, the capacious hall and the several other rooms were brilliantly lighted and profusely decorated, and Trist & Saxton's orchestra with its grandest music inspired the three-score belles and as many beaux, whose elaborate costumes and noble bearings combined with the splendors of the place forming an animated scene upon which the eye loves long to dwell.

Those who had never visited the Club were astonished at its magnitude and elegance, and even its members had not thoroughly comprehended its magnificence. Twenty-five visiting ladies and more than as many from home, with thirty or more visiting gentlemen and an equal number from home gathered by the fashionable hour of 7, and until past 2 in the morning indulged in the various delights of conversation, promenading, dancing, eating, and general merry-making. The table was prepared by an imported caterer, and the delicacies and dainties requisite on such occasions were present in abundance. There was no rush or confusion, or want of oversight, the progress of the evening being marked by that regularity and ease observed in houses much given to entertaining.

The ladies present and their costumes, so far as obtainable, were:

Miss Holt, of Frankfurt, white silk, white pascuette, lace and diamonds.

Miss Turner, Missouri, black lace dress, flowers, diamonds.

Miss Simms, Paris, black lace dress, natural flowers.

Miss Samuels, Mt. Sterling, blue silk, diamonds.

Miss Atkinson, Missouri, corded cream velvet, natural flowers, pearls.

Miss Wilson, Mt. Sterling, heliotrope silk, lace, diamonds.

Miss Lester, Washington, black velvet and lavender sash, lace and diamonds.

Miss Faulkner, Lancaster, pink satin tulle and pink roses.

Miss Fox, Mt. Sterling, pink sash, pink pascuette, diamonds.

Miss Hood, Mississippi, white muslin veiling, white sash silk, diamonds.

Miss Park, Cynthia, white silk, ostrich feathers, diamonds.

Miss Muir, Fayette county, black broadened velvet, lace, iridescent trimmings.

Miss Lacker, Missouri, pink broadened silk, duchesse lace.

Miss Williams, Cynthia, blue muslin veiling, lace, diamonds.

Miss Walker, Lancaster, blue silk, lace, natural flowers, diamonds.

Miss Brown, Bourbon county, slate silk, velvet, steel trimmings.

Miss Shelby, Fayette county, black silk, lace and gold ornaments.

Miss Chennault, Lexington, blue silk, tulle over dress, natural flowers.

Miss Slaughter, Danville, ciel and rose silk, amber beads.

Miss Tucker, Winchester, blue silk mull, lace, diamonds.

Miss Rowland, Danville, black lace, jet trimmings, diamonds.

Miss Steele, Bourbon county, white silk, lace, diamonds.

Miss Turner, Mt. Sterling, Rhademes satin, natural flowers, diamonds.

Miss Park, Arkansas, black silk and lace, natural flowers, diamonds.

Miss Feeler, Nashville, black lace and natural flowers.

Miss Minnie Smith, white and heliotrope silk, crepe lace, natural flowers.

Miss Mary B. Harris, pink silk, moire antique trimmings, diamonds.

Miss Minnie Letcher, pink crepe dechaine with corded velvet.

Miss Harrie Miller, white velvet and lace.

Miss Nettie Stockton, red velvet, cream gauze over-dress, natural flowers.

Miss Bessie Rayburn, white sash silk, point lace, diamonds.

Miss Annie Frazee, hand painted mull, pearls.

Miss Florence Barlow, tulle sash silk and cream broadened satin.

Mrs. J. E. Greenleaf, white albatross, natural flowers, diamonds.

Mrs. Samuel Bennett, Jr., white sash and crushed roses, diamonds.

Mrs. A. W. Smith, wine sash, crepe dechaine, lace, diamonds.

Mrs. J. B. Chennault, white satin and tulle, magnolia buds.

Mrs. Sallie Miller, black velvet, lace diamonds.

Madam Bobysheff, black silk, lace over-dress, flowers, diamonds.

The gentlemen were: James Richardson, New Orleans; E. Field Miller, Mississippi; James Heath, Mr. Dunlap, Mr. McDowell, South Carolina;

Mr. G. Sharp and Mr. South Carolina; Samuel Phelps, Andover, Massachusetts; John H. Stuart, James S. Winn, Fielding Bush, Hampton Bush, R. C. Gatewood, S. D. Goff, Winchester; Reed Rogers, James Gatewood, J. M. Crawford, C. C. Chennault, Squire Turner, C. C. Turner, C. L. Gayle, C. D. Ordine, M. L. Whitney, D. T. Apperson, L. Bridgeforth, Carroll Hamilton, Mt. Sterling; Dr. Johnson, Dr. Letcher, George McRoberts, William S. Rowland, Danville; R. C. Gregory, Louisville; J. B. Brooks, Frank Bedford, Bryce Steele, Paris; W. Sam Miller, McKee Stinson, John E. Faulkner, Lancaster; R. T. Irvine, Lebanon; J. S. Walker, J. C. Hughes, A. W. Smith, J. B. Chennault, J. R. Burnam, J. E. Greenleaf, D. B. Shackelford, G. W. Willis, S. H. Stone, J. A. Sullivan, F. M. Green, John Bennett, R. B. Terrill, Sam Bennett, Jr., J. B. McCrary, J. J. Brooks, E. B. Hume, John C. Miller, Dr. Wm. Jennings, F. H. Adair, A. F. Dudley, Dr. John Foster, J. W. Crooke, Jr., N. V. White, O. H. Chennault, W. B. Bright, George W. Phelps, Wm. F. Hume, D. W. Tribble, E. T. Burnett, Wm. R. Letcher, F. B. Carr, Dr. M. C. Heath, French Tipton.

PERSONAL.

Miss Cora Sawyers, of Barboursville, is visiting Miss Cora Pigg.

Mrs. A. J. Reed is in Louisville, visiting her mother who is ill.

Miss Lou Burgh, of Woodford county is visiting Mrs. E. Burgh.

Miss Sadie Davis, of Nicholasville, is visiting Miss Rosa Alverson.

Mr. W. D. Oldham, of Texas, is visiting the family of Col. T. S. Moberly.

Misses Cora and Belle Bullock, of Falmouth, visited friends here last week.

Mr. John Doty, of Lancaster, visited Mr. Charles Brock, Jr., during the Fair.

Mr. A. J. Carver and family and Miss Rogers, of Georgia, are at Mr. R. P. Fox's.

Lycurgus Broadus, of South Carolina, is spending a few days at his old home, this county.

Mr. Wm. J. Collins left yesterday for Hot Springs, Ark. He goes to have his ears treated.

Hon. J. B. McCrary has gone to Washington to help invite the President to Kentucky.

Mrs. Dr. Frazee, of Louisville, is visiting her nephew, Dr. L. J. Frazee on Second street.

Mr. Bosley, of the Winchester Sun, and Mr. Walton, of the Stanford Journal, took the Fair.

John C. Ballard attended the Kentucky Christian Missionary Convention at Mayville last week.

Misses Ann DeJarnett and Minna Crutcher have gone on the excursion from Lexington to Mammoth Cave.

Mrs. T. S. Moberly has been quite sick with flu for several weeks. She is now convalescent, and is at Estill Springs.

Misses Maggie Berry and Sissy Alverson, of Ford, and Misses Sallie Broadhurst and Nora White, of Winchester, attended the Fair on Thursday.

Miss Lizzie Jett, who has been quite sick at Frankfurt, is now convalescent and is expected home to-day. Mrs. J. J. Brooks is with her.

Miss Lucile Lindner, Lexington's popular songstress, who has several times visited in Richmond, has returned from the Northwest much improved in health.

Prof. C. P. Williamson and B. J. Newton, Esq., attended the Kentucky Christian Missionary Convention at Mayville, last week.

Miss Bettie Embury, of Louisville, formerly of this county, was a delegate to the Kentucky Christian Missionary Convention at Mayville, last week.

Misses Rachel and Jennie Lillard, of Lawrenceburg, who visited Miss Emma Willis last week, are the guests of Misses Lila and Alice Arnold, Kirkville, this week.

Messrs. J. W. Brawer and Richard Clark of the Union Stock Yards, Cincinnati, were at the Fair, Friday shaking hands with all the stock men on the grounds.

Among the former residents whom we observed at the Fair were Mr. Talton Embury, of Louisville, Mrs. T. A. Garrett, of Cynthia, accompanied by her husband; Mrs. Mary Smith, of Shelbyville, nee Phelps, accompanied by her husband; Mrs. Sam Brooks, of Scott county, nee Todd; Mr. George T. Farris, of East Bernstadt; Mr. W. O. Field, of St. Louis; Mr. E. Field Miller, of Mississippi; Miss Jessie Williams, of Cynthia; Mr. J. Travis Wilkerson and wife, of Lexington; Mr. Irvine Blanton and wife, of Cynthia; Dr. Pigg, of Florida; Mr. A. C. Green, Mr. W. S. Norris, Cincinnati.

PREMIUM LIST

Of the Madison County Fair, August 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th.

The first name after the thing exhibited is that of the person receiving the premium; the second is that of the person receiving the certificate.

FIRST DAY.

Silk patch-work quilt, Mrs. Dr. T. J. Taylor, Richmond; Miss Rebecca Ballard, Falmouth.

Worst quilt, Miss Sallie K. Brooks, Muir's Station; Mrs. S. G. Cundiff, Somerset.

Calico quilt, Mrs. Fannie Norris, Madison co.; Mrs. Annie Wallace, Falmouth.

Calico comfort, Mary Estill, Madison co.; Mrs. O. W. Hise, Madison co.

White counterpane, Mrs. W. A. Anderson, Garrard co.; Mrs. D. H. Jones, county.

Point lace linen handkerchief, Mrs. D. H. Myers, Madison co.; Miss Hattie March, Madison co.

Sun bonnet, Miss Frazier, Madison co.; Mrs. Nanette White.

Maple made calico dress, Miss Fannie D. White, Lexington; Nanette White, Lexington.

Worst embroidery, Miss Sallie K. Brooks, Muir's Station; Miss Fannie D. White, Lexington.

Linen embroidery, Mrs. Gattskill, Montgomery co.; Miss Sadie Wilgus, Lexington.

Silk embroidery, Miss Lucia Burman, Richmond; Mrs. Sandals, Fort Smith, Ark.

Hem stitching, by hand, Miss Rebecca Bullock, Falmouth; Miss Rebecca Bullock, Falmouth—10 entries.

Silk kensington embroidery, Mrs. Henderson, Lexington; Mrs. Theodore Bradford, Falmouth.

Worst kensington embroidery, Mrs. Theodore Bradford, Falmouth; Miss Rebecca Bullock, Falmouth.

Arrasine embroidery, Mrs. Theodore Bradford, Falmouth; Miss Mamie Baldwin, Madison co.

Ten yards home-made jeans, Mrs. Nanette Miller, Madison co.

Two yards home-made flannel, Jim Deatherage, Madison co.

Ten yards home-made rag carpet, Mrs. O. W. Hise, Madison co.; Miss Mattie Covington, Madison co.

Pair home-made blankets, Mrs. Willie Hise, Madison co.; Mrs. Malina Perkins, Parkersburg.

Pair wool hose, Mrs. Nancy Taylor, Madison co.; Mrs. Theodore Bradford, Falmouth.

Wool one-half hose, Mrs. J. F. Wagers, Madison co.

Gloves, Mrs. W. A. Bacon, Paris—9 entries.

Cotton hose, Mrs. J. F. Wagers, Madison co.; Mrs. Theodore Bradford, Falmouth.

Cotton one-half hose, Mrs. Theodore Bradford, Falmouth; Mrs. Richard Potts, Madison co.

Cut flowers, Mrs. John S. Park, Fort Smith, Ark.; Mrs. J. Speed Smith, Richmond.

Hand bouquet, Mrs. J. Speed Smith, Richmond; Mrs. John S. Park, Fort Smith, Ark.

Tainted china, Miss Florence Barlow, Richmond.

Oil painting, Fred Dunage, Richmond; Fred Dunage, Richmond—7 entries.

Water-color painting, Mrs. R. B. Clark, Madison co.; Miss Georgia Moberly, Richmond.

Pencil work, Mrs. P. B. Clark, Madison co.

Crayon work, Miss Nanette Maupin, Madison co.; Fred Demage, Richmond.

Two pounds of butter—special premium by J. J. Brooks—Miss Bessie Miller, Madison co.; J. H. Boggs, Madison co.

Two pounds cheese, Mrs. O. W. Hise, Madison co.; Mrs. T. J. Curtis, Madison co.

Two loaves of corn bread, Mrs. Willie Hise, Madison co.; Mrs. J. E. Boggs.

Two loaves of wheat bread, Mrs. John McKenna, Richmond; Mrs. B. C. Potts.

Saddle of mutton, John H. Peyton, Madison co.

Baked ham—special premium by L. E. and G. C. Francis—Mrs. R. F. Tevis, Madison co.; Mrs. John H. Peyton, Madison co.

Plate beaten biscuit—special premium by J. D. Dykes—Mrs. B. C. Potts, Madison co.; Miss Mattie McDowell, Madison co.

White cake, Mrs. Willie Hise, Madison co.; Miss Mamie Baldwin, Madison co.; Mrs. Nannie Norris, Madison co.

Chocolate cake, Mrs. Richard Potts, Madison co.; Miss Annie Urnston, Richmond.

Jelly cake, Mrs. Willie Hise, Madison co.; Mrs. Mattie Alverson, Richmond; Miss Annie Mershon, Richmond.

Black cake, Mrs. Robert Miller, Madison co.; Mrs. R. P. Fox, Madison co.

Gallon ice cream—special premium by S. Dinelli & Co.—Miss Bessie Miller, Madison co.; S. Dinelli & Co., Richmond.

Gallon shortbread, S. Dinelli & Co., Richmond; Miss Minnie Smith, Richmond.

Grape wine, Mrs. M. Million, Madison co.; Miss Lucy March, Madison co.

Blackberry wine, T. J. Potts, Madison co.; Mary Estill, Madison co.

Peach apples, Miss Nanette Black, Madison co.

Peach pears, W. Masters, Madison co.

Peach peaches, B. C. Potts, Madison co.

Basket grapes, L. Schlegel, Richmond; Percy Brock, Richmond.

Peck Irish potatoes, Mrs. James Keen, Madison co.; W. R. Haden, Madison co.

Peck sweet potatoes, John Clark, Madison co.; W. N. Long, Madison co.

Peck tomatoes, W. R. Letcher, Richmond, Ben Blackwell, Madison co.

Peck turnips, John H. Peyton, Madison co.; Mrs. Mattie Alverson, Richmond.

Dozen cucumbers, Mrs. Mattie Alverson, Richmond.

Three watermelons, W. R. Haden, Madison co.; Tom Harris, Madison co.

Half bushel wheat, James M. Smith, Madison co.; James M. Smith, Madison co.—6 entries.

Half bushel rye, Sid Taylor, Madison co.

Co.—W. W. Adams, Lexington; Mrs. Susan W. Shirley, Fayette co.; Mare colt, A. T. Brown, Fayette co.; J. J. Embury, county.

Mare, 1 year old and under 2, Randolph Bros., Fayette co.

Mare, 2 years old and under 3, John T. Hughes, Lexington; T. V. Boudinot, county.

Mare, 3 years old and under 4, Preston & R. L. Parker, Lexington; T. B. Muir, Lexington.

Mare, 4 years old and over, McKee & Traynor, Richmond; Whitney & Co., Mt. Sterling.

Mare, any age, Whitney & Co., Mt. Sterling; Preston & R. L. Parker, Fayette co.

Pair matched geldings, John T. Hughes, Lexington.

Two yards home-made flannel, Jim Deatherage, Madison co.

Best lady and gentleman rider—special premium by J. C. Lyter—Miss Talitha Rogers, county; Miss Nannie Maupin, county.

Double tennis, regardless of sex, color or ownership, W. W. Adams, Lexington; John T. Hughes, Lexington.

Trotting race on track—$100 purse—best 3 in 5—Barnum & Bennett's Yezzo, county; Samuel Mason's, Miss Hofs, Boyle county.

Running race on track—best 3 in 5—pure, $100—$75 to 1st and $25 to 2nd, Charles Anderson's Playfellow, Fayette; J. M. Isola's Follower, Fayette co.

THIRD DAY.

HARNESS HORSES.

Stallion under 1 year old, R. P. Fox, county. Frank and Robert French, county.

Stallion, 1 year old and under 2, Irvine Ashby, county; T. B. Walker & Bro., county.

Stallion, 2 years old and under 3, McKee & Traynor, county; Sam Johnson, Boyle co.

Stallion, 3 years old and under 4, John Davis, Fayette co.

Stallion, 4 years old and over, Barnum, Bennett & Co., county; Robert McAlister, Lincoln co.

Brood mare—known to be a breeder—R. A. Sparks, county, James Crutcher, Jr., county.

Rockaway mare or gelding—special premium by Milton & Fox—W. W. Adams, Lexington; E. B. Hume, county.

Sweepstakes—stallion any age, McKee & Traynor, Richmond; Robert McAlister, Lincoln co.